Approval of Computerised System
Lotteries and Art Union Act 1901

Dear Andrew,

I refer to your application for approval of a computerised system to determine the winners of a prize in a trade promotion lottery under section 4B of the Act. You have provided the following particulars in support of your application:

Particulars of the computerised system

Description of the computerised device

“DRAW MY COMP”

Independent letter or report

The approval letter from the SA Office of the Liquor and Gambling Commissioner dated 14 September 2010 attests that the computerised device described above is random in its selection of winners, and it has appropriate safeguards and controls in place to overcome the possibility of any person manipulating the device.

Details of the procedures and controls instituted

Outlined in the Draw Procedures Report

Determination

I am please to advise that approval has been granted to the computerised systems outlined above.

Conditions of approval

The approval to the computerised remains current until –

- revoked; or
- the particulars upon which it was granted have been modified without prior approval; or
- the particulars upon which it was granted are not being complied with by the benefiting business or trade of the benefiting business's agent;

which ever occurs first.

[Refer to clause 20(2) of the conditions attached to the permit authorising the conduct of the lottery or game of chance]

Future Trade Promotions

If you use the same computerised systems outlined above, then any future application for a permit to conduct a trade promotion lottery –

- must be accompanied by a copy of this letter or approval; and
- a covering letter that says that the computerised has not altered from that previously lodged with this Office
